Dear Harold:

Thank you so much for your two recent letters. I've known about Lish Whitson for some time, and I believe I explicitly named him in my FBI book back in 1981. I've never talked to him, but he's still alive and lives in Bethesda, as I recall. He was still an active agent in '64-'65, and was "former" only as of the time of the '76-'77 DOJ and congressional probes.

You're also correct that the Robinson in Selma is the same Robinson from Dallas; his NSRP affiliation was well-known at the time, & publicized.

I'm pleased you're enjoying Bearing the Cross, and that Mike Moscato has been in touch with you about the microfilming of the Memphis files.

Best,

Dave
